Fees and charges

There are three possible levels of fees and charges that can be levied to residents who are entering residential aged care after 1 July 2014.

- 1. Basic Daily Care Fee – This is the standard charge for every resident in aged care and is calculated at 85% of the single Centrelink pension.

- 2. Additional Services Fee – For information about Additional Services refer to the Additional Services Residents brochure.

- 3. Accommodation Payment – Only residents who the Department of Human Services determines to be non-supported will pay an Accommodation Payment.

There are four options for paying the Accommodation Payment. It is recommended that you seek professional financial advice before proceeding with any of the options listed below.

Accommodation Payment Options	Price
Option 1: Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD)
OR
Option 2: Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP)
OR
Option 3: Combination Payment of RAD and DAP This assumes 50% of the accommodation has been paid as lump-sum
OR
Option 4: Flexible Deduction of the Accommodation Payment If you choose option 3 above, then to make it more convenient for you to enter care, we offer you the ability to pay a smaller Refundable Accommodation Deposit and have your ongoing Daily Accommodation Payments deducted from this original amount.	In the example table below, an initial refundable accommodation deposit of _____ can be paid on admission and then each year the daily payments are deducted from this figure. This process means that you do not need to find regular daily accommodation payments. The example shows that you will be able to live in our facility for over 5 years before the need to find additional funds for your accommodation.
